

You've hidden your pregnancy and feel that you have no place to turn. But there is something that you can do.

You can safely and anonymously leave your newborn child at any hospital emergency room, or Orangewood Children's Home at 401 The City Drive, Orange, CA

County of Orange

Social Services Agency
Health Care Agency

Children's Services Coordination Committee

Children & Families Commission of Orange County

Don't Throw Your Baby Away!

Give Them A Chance For Life!

You can safely and anonymously leave your newborn child at any hospital emergency room, or Orangewood Children's Home at 401 The City Drive, Orange, CA

GIVE THEM A CHANCE . . .

A hospital emergency room or Orangewood Children's Home will take your newborn baby (up to 3 days old).
You will not be identified or prosecuted.
Don't throw your baby away!

. . . A CHANCE FOR LIFE!

A message from the Social Services Agency

Child welfare workers will place your baby in a licensed foster home while finding the best adoptive family.
You can change your mind
within 14 days.

A new law lets anyone with legal custody of a newborn baby (up to 3 days old) give the baby to a hospital emergency room or Orangewood Children's Home staff, without identification or police involvement.

Don't throw your baby away.

Give them a chance for life!

Locations where you can take your newborn baby include:

- Any hospital emergency room, or
- Orangewood Children's Home
401 The City Drive
Orange, California 92868
Phone (714) 935-7080

What will happen at the hospital?

Newborn babies up to three days old will be taken care of, given medical treatment and placed in a safe home and it's strictly confidential. You will know that your baby has been taken care of.